

COLORING SECTION

Jacob was shown grace and kindness despite his many failures - like stealing from his older brother...twice! But that was just a small taste of what God would do later on. God sent His Son Jesus despite our failures and our turning away from Him. He gave us everything we would ever need: forgiveness of our sin, taking the consequences Himself, and giving us a new life and a new identity. The story of Jacob reminds us that God is gracious and He provides, even when we fail.
